

CITY OF LACEY Official Proclamation

WHEREAS, during African American History Month, the many achievements and contributions made by African Americans to our economic, cultural, spiritual, and political development are celebrated; and

WHEREAS, in 1976, Black History Month was formally adopted to honor and affirm the importance of Blacks in American History, advance the cause of civil rights and strengthen families, communities, and the nation; and

WHEREAS, in 1915, Dr. Carter G. Woodson, a noted Black scholar and son of former slaves, founded the Association for the Study of African American Life and History (ASALH) and initiated Negro History Week in 1926; and

WHEREAS, the first kidnapped Africans were brought to this country 400 years ago and was the beginning of legalized slavery that lasted for 250 years, until Emancipation in 1863; and

WHEREAS, as a result of their determination, hard work, and perseverance against all odds, African Americans have made valuable and lasting contributions to our community, the state, and the nation; achieving exceptional success in all aspects of society including business, education, politics, science, the military, sports, and the arts; and

WHEREAS, Association for the Study of African American Life and History's 2021 theme, "The Black Family" emphasizes representation, identity and diversity.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Andy Ryder, Mayor of the City of Lacey, on behalf of the Lacey City Council, do hereby proclaim February, 2021, as in the City of Lacey and urge all citizens to recognize the continued need to battle racism and to build a society that is more just, peaceful, and prosperous for all.

African American History Month
